

Ohio State Beekeepers Association

OSBA Award Nomination Form

Hall of Fame – Awarded to an Ohio individual that has exhibited lifetime achievements which have made a positive impact to the entire beekeeping community. This award is presented to a person who has over a period of years contributed in a substantial and positive way to beekeeping in Ohio. This award can be awarded posthumously. Nominees should comply with at least three of these criteria:

- Reached out to the non-beekeeping public to explain the value of honeybees in our lives.
- Been involved in the beekeeping community, locally, regionally and or nationally for a minimum of five years.
- Influential to new beekeepers by teaching or mentoring new beekeeper(s).
- Has contributed in some substantial and positive way to beekeeping in Ohio, they do not have to be a member of any bee club.

The deadline for submissions/nominations is September 30, 2021. Nominations and letters of support should be emailed to Dale Olson, Western Reserve Representative, email: doconstruction@yahoo.com. Questions call, 216-408-0446. The Hall of Fame committee may also nominate someone, with or without a nomination letter or letters of support. All nominations will be treated fairly and equally thru the process of determining a final nomination.
